FEATURES

Rocko Carbon expands the range of ultra light Elite carbon fiber bottle cages with unique technical features and an elegant patented design. Rocko Carbon is very light and compatible with all frames - its side insertion and extraordinary retention capabilities makes it ideal for MTBs.

EXTREMELY LIGHT

Weighing only 27 g Rocko Carbon is designed to ensure exceptional lightness. It's made in a highly performing, carbon fiber-based composite material, lighter and more resistant than steel, therefore perfect to significantly reduce the final weight of the product.

At the same time, carbon ensures a very high mechanical resistance under any circumstance, thus making the bottle cage ideal for use with an MTB.

EASY SIDE INSERTION

Rocko Carbon's main distinctive feature is easy side insertion and removal of the bottle and compatibility with all frames, though it's ideal for MTBs with sloping or smaller frames.

PATENTED DESIGN

Rocko Carbon's new, patented design ensures a small footprint, so it's an ergonomic solution to insert and remove the bottle even when there's not much room available.

This makes handling the bottle easy and practical also on frames that do not offer much room for movement, such as smaller, sloping or full ones.

HIGH RETENTION CAPABILITY

One of the most distinctive features of the Rocko Carbon is its high retention capability. Rocko Carbon features a structure designed to envelop the bottle also in its upper section, so it's firmly held under any circumstance, for instance when riding an MTB, where high speed descents, rocky terrain and off-roads require excellent stability against shocks, vibrations or terrain collisions.

SUPERIOR AESTHETIC FINISH

Its patented design, the attention to detail and exclusive paint ensure that the Rocko Carbon is superior to all competitors, highly resistant to wear and featuring maximum ergonomics and solidity.

Rocko Carbon's, with a simple and clean design, with 4 color variants, so it adapts to all types of bicycles and all cycling styles.
